Abundant Australia: highlights from the 11th Venice Architecture Biennale

CREATIVE DIRECTORS: Neil Durbach, Vince Frost, Wendy Lewin, Kerstin Thompson, Gary Warner.

The exhibition Abundant Australia, organised by the Australian Embassy Bangkok, will be on display at the Bangkok Art and Culture Centre (BACC) from 25 September to 17 October as part of Bangkok Design Festival 2009.

Abundant Australia features architectural models from prominent Australian architects such as Alex Popov Architects, Ashton Raggott McDougall, Denton Corker Marshall, Fairweather Proberts Architects, Iredale Pedersen Hook, Kennedy Nolan, Kerstin Thompson Architects and Wood Marsh Architecture.

The exhibition comprises 160 models of both domestic and commercial buildings that were originally presented in the Australian Pavilion at the 11th International Architecture Exhibition in Venice, Italy, 2008.

Each model captures the particularities of the architect's distinct practice and reflects Australian diverse landscape, occupied by cities, towns, deserts and creative individuals determined to build a better nation.

Developed and toured by the Asialink Centre at the University of Melbourne, in partnership with the Australian Institute of Architects, Abundant Australia invites visitors to learn more about the vigorous energy, exuberance, and diversity of Australia's architectural past, present, and future.

BACC is open to the public and entry is free. Opening hours are between 10am – 9pm, Tuesday to Sunday. Tel: 02-214 6630-1
